Family Promise Honored as Award Finalist

Denver Metro Chamber recognized nonprofit at annual event

Denver – April 27, 2015 – Family Promise of Greater Denver was celebrated as one of three finalists for Small Nonprofit of the Year at the 2015 Business Awards luncheon hosted by the Denver Metro Chamber of Commerce today.

The event recognized 18 finalists across six categories for businesses and nonprofits of all sizes.

“This is an incredible honor. We are humbled by the Denver Metro Chamber’s recognition of our work,” said Jolynn Snyder, executive director at Family Promise. “Family Promise is focused on helping an average of 70 homeless families every year – not only caring for their basic needs, but helping them achieve sustainable independence. This award placement is a testament to their incredible spirit and strength as well as the dedication of more than 1,000 volunteers that make our mission possible.”

We Don’t Waste and Angels of America’s Fallen were also nominated for the Small Nonprofit of the Year award. We Don’t Waste won the award.
